Are you?

Ogone is looking for a
BUSINESS PROJECT MANAGER ^{M/F}
for our Brussels HQ

YOUR JOB

Reporting to the Head of Product Management, you are a member of the Product Management Team. You drive the realization of business initiatives such as new payment methods from start to finish. You are responsible to achieve the milestones & timeframes, as well as the quality of your projects. You are the Primary Point of Contact for all involved parties, including external partners such as acquirers and customers. For some projects you will define the business requirements.

After an internal training period, you will be an expert in Ogone products and services, allowing you to:

- Act as Project Manager by coordinating the efforts of different parties for various types of projects:
 - Projects related to our banking and acquiring partners (connection development, co-branded platform implementation, ...)
 - Projects related to the enhancement and enrichment of the Ogone platform (new or improved features, functionalities, ...)
 - Projects with our key customers
- Manage the implementation of these projects from end-to-end, coordinating the efforts of different teams involved (development, sales & marketing, business development, customer care, legal, ...)
- Create the business requirements in the form of Agile user stories
- Ensure that the different internal teams involved receive the required input to allow them to deliver their part of the project in order to meet the pre-defined milestones & timeframes
- Report project status at the adequate level to the different stakeholders
- Identify and anticipate any issues with your projects and raise this to the adequate level of management when needed
- Participate in the definition and deployment of the Ogone project management culture within the organization
